Ohio Amish

Day One — Travel to Charleston, WV

Your tour to picturesque Ohio starts with a drive through the mountains of North Carolina, Virginia, and West Virginia. We overnight in northern West Virginia. (D)

Day Two — Visit Blennerhassett Island, Fenton Glass, and Warther's Carving

The story of Arron Burr and Blennerhassett Island is fascinating and you will learn much of the story this morning. After lunch (on your own) we visit Fenton Glass before traveling to Central Ohio. This evening will be a special night as we visit one of our favorite places, Warther's Carvings for a tour and candlelight dinner. (B, D)

Day Three — Ohio Amish

The largest Amish community in the world is in central Ohio. Today we visit this beautiful farm country; touring the area with our local guide, enjoying the day at a gentle relaxed pace. We will have lunch in an Amish home, and have an included Amish style meal. (B, L)

Day Four—Visit the Football Hall of Fame or First Ladies Library in Canton, OH, Lehman's Hardware

This morning we visit Lehman's Hardware, one of the largest hardware stores dedicated to tools and supplies that do not use electricity—Bobby likes to call it a 19th century Walmart. This afternoon we continue the Cincinnati, Ohio area to visit the amazing Creation Museum. We overnight in Northern Kentucky. (B, D)

Day Five—Return to Northeast Georgia

We return to today through the beautiful Kentucky countryside and stop at Cumberland Lodge for lunch. In the afternoon we travel through the Smoky Mountains to Northeast Georgia. (B, L)
